

SLOVAK REPUBLIC

Contribution received in relation to the compendium not in the format of the template

[Original: English]
[15 January 2024]

The Slovak Republic is the newest Associate Member of the European Space Agency since 13th October 2022 and within this framework supports European space debris mitigation standards that are also considered in the draft of the national Slovak space legislation.